Dear Mr. Manley:-

I am sorry to learn of your having recently closed your checking account with our Main Office, and hope that this action has in no way been prompted by lack of consideration on the part of any of our officers or employees. If so, I should consider it a personal favor if you would advise me.

Assuming that your relations with the Lincoln National may have been pleasant, and the service in every way satisfactory, I am hopeful, should the occasion again arise, we may be privileged to serve your banking needs.

Sincerely,

President.
